MEMBER NEWS

Fran Fuller of Washougal recently passed away after a long battle with pancreatic cancer. Fran's work schedule at New Seasons Market and then her more recent illness kept her from being as active in AWW as she might have been, but she was able to help at a few walks, and those of us who knew her were instant friends. She loved cooking, walking, and the outdoors, especially the Columbia River Gorge. A memorial is (was) June 1 in Portland.

Joan Heins experienced a serious heart attack in early May and is slowly regaining strength at her Vancouver home before beginning physical therapy. Joan expects to resume her legendary healthy habits and walking regimen sometime later this summer.
